The World Dinna Ken
Cricket.

Scots Willop a Cosmopolitan Aggregation at Makiki With 64 Runs.

Cricket, as it is played in the land of cakes, attracted a great crowd to the Makiki grounds on Saturday afternoon. Not only were the Scots out in strength but the World was well represented. Tugged out in white flannels the cricketers presented a noble spectacle and numerous ladies, relatives and friends of the contestants, occupied a position of vantage in the shade, their applause and admiring criticism lending inspiration to the heroes on the scorching grounds.
In another shady place at some little distance from where the ladies sat, inspiration in another form lay cooling in a barrel wrapped in ice bandages; the lemonade was most grateful after hard play, to Scotland as well as to the rest of the universe.

Cricket is looking up in Honolulu, interest in the sport is decidedly on the increase and several enthusiasts are seeing to it that the game shall have a good following and substantial support in the community.

A match between teams representing Scotland and the World was played and resulted in a victory for the former by the handsome margin of sixty-four runs. The game throughout was characterized by a keenness and enthusiasm which augurs well for the forthcoming season of the Honolulu Cricket Club. There was a very noticeable improvement in the fielding, which was at times really smart. R.
Anderson was the bright particular star of the afternoon, his forty-three runs being obtained by sterling, forceful cricket. H. B. Sinclair's useful twenty-seven is also worthy of mention. Captain Kelley was the top scorer for the Universe with eleven runs to his credit. In the bowling department: Donald Ross and R. Anderson, who each captured four wickets at an infinitesimal cost, shared the honors. Cockburn, Parish, Biddell and Smith also did good work with the ball. Below appears the tale of the tragedy:

A CHILD BADLY SCALDED.

Ran Into a Servant and Overturned Two Plates of Hot Soup.

The little five-year old son of Frederick J. Turner, of Lewis & Co., met with a very painful accident on Saturday during the luncheon hour. The little fellow left the dining room to go into the kitchen and started to run. Just as he reached the door between the dining room and kitchen he suddenly encountered the servant bearing two plates of soup for the table.

The sudden impact caused the plates to be overturned and the smoking contents were emptied on the child's neck and chest, scalding the flesh so that it hung in shreds. The boy stoically bore the pain. Dr. McGrew, who attended the child, yesterday found the sufferer still in great pain but much improved.

Sunday Runaway.

A runaway hack caused a stampede on King street yesterday afternoon. It started from in front of E. O. Hall & Son's and dashed across to the corner where it smashed into another hack doing some damage to the wind guard.
The horse then changed his course and started down King street colliding with the log trees on McIntyre's corner. The next place the runaway hit was the Occidental hotel. The building stopped the horse but a large piece of the corner of the hotel was broken off. The horse was thrown to the ground by the collision breaking the shafts of the vehicle and badly cutting itself. His owner arrived soon after his horse was caught and took him in charge.

To Attorneys,

And to whom it may concern:

I beg to call your attention to my capabilities as an auctioneer, and respectfully solicit such business as might be at your disposal. I act as referee; conduct such sales as are formally demanded in the transaction of legal affairs; make appraisements and act as administrator of estates. I have all the facilities necessary for the successful conduct of this especial class of business. I am a licensed auctioneer, thoroughly familiar with all the requirements demanded in the office as such, and PERSONALLY CONDUCT all sales. In short, I will take full and complete charge of all affairs appertaining to real estate.

Real

and is most thoroughly equipped. My methods are peculiarly my own and are uniformly of satisfaction to all with whom I have business relations, as in all the departments the utmost courtesy is extended to all. Special attention given to the subdivisions of outlying tracts. Twenty-five and more years experience justifies this statement.

Collecting

In no department of the real estate business should greater caution be exercised than in these departments.
EXPERIENCE, TRUSTWORTHINESS AND AFFABILITY are absolutely necessary. Good judgment, business foresight and a devotion to the interests of my clients, while being guided by their personal preferences is my assurance I give to those placing their business in my hands.
